

Chieh Sheng LIN – Research Associate

Mr. Chieh Sheng LIN obtained the Bachelor Degree in Business Administration from Tunghai University and his MBA from National Chung Hsing University, Taiwan. After his service in army, now he is a Graduate Student in International Political Economy of Peking University. He was Teaching Assistant for several courses such as Statistics, Research Methods, Business Analysis and Decision Making, Marketing Management, International Business Management and International Political Economy in National Chung Hsing University and Peking University.

Since September 2014, Chieh Sheng LIN has been Research Associate at gLAWcal – Global Law Initiatives for Sustainable Development. He joined gLAWcal after his participation to the Summer Law Institute with focus on Intellectual Property Rights, Climate Change, Energy and Environmental Protection held at Peking University School of Government. His research interests are International Political Economy, Nation and Market, Research Methods of Social Science, Business Strategy Management, Marketing Management, Regional Trade Policy and Globalization. He is currently Visiting Researcher at West Virginia University, Department of Public Administration under the supervision of Professor Dr. Paolo Farah. He is working on a research project on the Trans-Pacific Partnership (TPP) Agreement under the perspective of China and the U.S. He is a Mandarin native speaker, he is fluent in Taiwanese, Cantonese, he has a good knowledge of English and he is a beginner in French and Spanish.