

Giorgio Caligari – External Collaborator

Since April 2016, Mr. Giorgio Caligari has been an External Collaborator at gLAWcal – Global Law Initiatives for Sustainable Development.

In November 2015, he graduated obtaining his combined LLB./Master of Law from the University of Milan Law School with a thesis on “Globalization, International Trade and Cultural Diversity: a Sociological-Legal Analysis”.

His main areas of interest are International Trade Law, International Law and Global Policy.

During his studies he has been several times to the U.S. for legal training.

Italian native speaker, fluent in English and currently studying Spanish.

Last update on April 15, 2016