

Marek PRÍTYI – Research Associate

Since March 2016, Mr. Marek PRÍTYI has been a Research Associate at gLAWcal – Global Law Initiatives for Sustainable Development.

Mr. Prítyi is a PhD Candidate at the University of Cologne, Germany. His research is focused on the relationship between human rights and protection of the environment.

In 2015, he obtained degree Doctor of Law (JUDr.) at the Trnava University, Slovakia, with a thesis on “Protection of Refugees in European and International Law”. In 2014, he obtained his LL.M. degree (Magna Cum Laude) at the University of Cologne. Prior to that, he completed studies of law at the Comenius University in Bratislava, Slovakia (2012).

During his studies in Slovakia he completed the course “Austrian School of Law in Bratislava”, co-organized by the Vienna University of Economics and Business. He also spent one semester as Erasmus student at the University of Cologne (2011) and was a member of team that represented the Comenius University in Bratislava at the Regional Final of the European Law Moot Court Competition (2012).

Mr. Prítyi worked as in-house lawyer in the legal department of international consulting company (2015-2016). He completed a traineeship at the German Parliament (2015) and he worked as junior lawyer at local law firm in Bratislava (2012-2013) and as pro bono legal consultant at Amnesty International (2013).

Slovak native speaker, he is fluent in English and German.

Last Update: March 2016