

Silvia Polloni - Research Associate

Since October 2016, Ms. Silvia Polloni has been a Research Associate at gLAWcal - Global Law Initiatives for Sustainable Development (United Kingdom).

Ms. Polloni attended the Catholic University of Milan, Italy, where she graduated with a Bachelor Degree in Foreign Languages, Mandarin Chinese and English, and International Relations. During her B.A. studies, she studied at BLCU, the Beijing Language and Culture University in China.

She obtained her Master Degree of International Relations and European Studies (RISE) in December 2015 from the University of Florence, Italy, when she focused on the Chinese national security policies, the Chinese diplomatic features and the national intelligence system.

Since April 2016 Ms. Polloni is attending a Second Level University Master Degree in Intelligence and National Security at the UniLink Campus University of Rome, Italy, where she is focusing on the features of the bailiwick of Intelligence, the different ways to control information and a project work on the Chinese Country Risk Assessment.

She is an Italian native speaker, fluent in English and Mandarin, semi-fluent in German and French.

Last Update: November 2016